

887
responses

“Where they had heard about Adult Safeguarding ?”

51% had through work,
23% through a professional only
5% through a leaflet or poster and under
9% through media or social media

91% had heard of Adult Safeguarding
6% had not

The largest group completing the survey identified themselves as ;

Working for a
24% Health care organisation
17% Voluntary and community sector or
12% Housing

From Norfolk County council;

9.5% Social Care,
9.3% Other department
0.8 % Fire and Rescue.

Other respondents included

NHS staff, the Police and Prison services.

“Would you report adult abuse?”

89% said Yes

“Would you report adult abuse?”

Those who said No the most common reason was

27% It might be a mistake

19% Don't know how

18% Nothing will change.

5% Not my business the least common reason

2018

“What should the priorities for NSAB be ?”

The most common answer was
Domestic Abuse followed by
Neglect and Homelessness and
Sleeping rough.

Have you heard of Adult safeguarding?

Yes 91%

How did you hear about Adult safeguarding?

Work 51%
Through a professional 23%

Who do you work for?
Other health care organisation 24%
Voluntary / community sector 17%
Housing 12%

Would you report adult abuse

Yes 89%

If no or not sure why?

Might be a mistake 27%
Don't know how 19%
Nothing will change 18%

Do care and support services help you in feeling safe?

No 39%

Who do you think is an adult at risk of abuse or neglect?

Dementia, Mental Health problems, Downs Syndrome, Visually impaired, Misuses drugs or alcohol

What do you consider to be Adult abuse?

Pressure to have sex, not adequate care in a residential home, Humiliating/intimidating, withholding medication

What do you think the priorities of the NSAB should be?

Domestic Abuse, Neglect, Homelessness/rough sleeping, Understanding the effect of cuts on people's safeguarding