Wednesday 19 November 10-10.50am	‘In conversation’ with Terry Pinto, Prevention Lead at Norfolk Fire & Rescue Service (NFRS) Hear about the NFRS’s proactive role in preventative safeguarding work, such as hoarding advice, home fire safety checks and preparing for winter. This session will explore the service’s ability to act as trusted ‘eyes and ears’ in the community and how they can work with your service to build a clear picture of risk to a vulnerable individual helping them live safely and independently.	forms.office.com/e/pw692zbSnM
Thursday 20 November 10-10-50am	‘In conversation’ with Jo Cook, Designated Safeguarding and Mental Capacity Lead, Blind Veterans UK Our Voluntary, Community and Social Enterprise (VCSE) sector holds a vital position in our safeguarding partnership as organisations which are close to our communities. This session will explore and celebrate this role and look at how the charity sector plays a key part in adult safeguarding preventative work. Using examples of what charities have done strategically and operationally, this will be a vital session for all VCSE leaders and CEOs helping explore ways in which safeguarding responsibilities can be further strengthened in your organisations.	forms.office.com/e/nVKPGBLTDn
